AUDIT OF COUNTY BOOKS WILL REQUIRE 10 DAYS YET

In spite of the desire of county auditor Roy D. Barnum that the auditing of the county books be completed before he retires from office Jan. 21, it is not expected that the work can be linished in time. The word now is that it will probably take 10 days to finish the work.

The books have been in the hands of Masquelette & Co., expert accountants, since the 1st of December, but a rush of business made it necessary to leave the county books for a time, which has delayed the work considerably, they have said.

EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION URGED BY UNIVERSITY HEAD

Austin Tex. Jan. 24.—The educational program of the state and all bills and proposed amendments to the state constitution affecting education, should be reterred to a commission, stated Dr. R. E. Vinson, president of the University of Texas, in an interview today. "My opinion a," sad Dr. Vinson, "that the 25th legislature ould not do a better thing for the educational advancement of the state of Texas than to appoint a commission to which would be committed all of the legislation which has been proposed.

This Star Wears Many Magnificent Gowns in 'Vanity' at Unique Theater.

Emmy Wehlen, who is recognized as one of the most beautiful and correctly dressed women in the world. wears gowns and wraps that display the latest modes in "Vanity," the Metro wonderplay to be shown at the Unique theater, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. This play by Aaron Hoffman gives the star ample opportunity to wear these "creations" and every reason for doing so, since her part in the Popular Plays and Players produc-tion is that of Phyllis Lord, a model in the Popular Plays and Players production is that of Phyllis Lord, a model in an exclusive establishment for fashionable women's apparel.

In this Fifth avenue store, Miss Wehlen, as Phyllis, is called upon to display to wealthy patrons the advance styles of leading modistes. Her blonde beauty is seen to advantage in a silver brocade gown of flowing lines, the bodice heavily ornamented with sapphires and cut rhinestones. The skirt is short in front, the back having a long, graceful, silver-brocaded train.
The distinguishing feature of this gown is the huge buckle of rhinestones and sapphires almost covering the decollete back of the bodice.

With this gown is worn a Cherouit wrap of brocaded silver and black velvet made in cape effect and richly trimmed with fur. Broad bands of blue velvet arranged in a series of flounces form the hais of the lower part of the wrap. A lunge fan of black velvet ostrich plumes is carried with this costume, which is completed by dainty hosiery of a silver tone and slippers of silver brocade with large buckles of sapphire and cut rhinetones.—Advertisement.

WIGWAY-"THE VAMPIRES."

The seventh episode in "The Vampires of Paris" is being shown today at the Wigwam. Like the preceding installments, this is a complete adventure in three reels of these arch criminals. This one is called "The Master of Thunder" and it shows the thrilling adventures of "Satanas," the chief of the Vampires, in trying to release the Vampire gueen, "Irms Vep."

Tomorrow, Richard Bennett, former stage and screen star of "Damaged Goods," will be seen in "And the Law Saya." Mr. Bennett is probably the most forceful of all the dramatic screen actors. He has the role of the judge who lived a double life. The story is an unusual one and one that has caused much comment, owing to the claim presented that electricity cannot kill. There are a number of big scenes in "And the Law Saya." but the most sensational one is the electrocution of the judge's own son as a condemned criminal. Two fil Paso girls, Misses Francisco. judge's own son as a condemned criminal. Two El Paso girls, Misses Frances and Allens Woodard, are in the picture. They are the daughters of Mrs. Iva M. LAST DAY, DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS.

"His Picture in the Papers," the cheerful, sprightly play in which Fairbanks frolics merrily and keeps his audiences in constant uproars, finishes its successful run at the Grecian today. This picture is funnier than a barrel of monkeys, its pep is the kind of pep that makes you sit up and take notice, and its thrills are positively "killing." Every human that saw it the past two days is a living, waiking testimonial in favor of this play and if you see it today you will talk about it for a month.

VIVIAN MARTIN.

A screen story with a lig punch, filled with scenes of pathelle humorand great heart interest is the treat afforded by the new Pallas-Paramount preduction, "The Hight Direction."

The attraction, at the Alhambra today only, deals with a beautiful little wanderer who starts for California on foot with her baby brother, "Billy Boy," because the charity doctor said she must take him there. The many exciting things that happen on the way, the meeting with the handsome college youth who was also going in "The Right Direction" the spisode with the "yegg" men, the hazard at the gold mine and the various surprises of the story are visualized with unusual effectiveness. Charming Vivian Martin is featured in this play.—Adv. HIGHIE MACK AT THE BLICK.

The cream of the comedies are shown at the Bijou. Today you will see "Hughie Mack" in the big "V" comedy. Enough said! Come early. The Bijou at present is too small to take a chance and wait for the night shows. Tomorrow the new Fox comedy will be here. These comedies are released at the Bijou for the first showing in Tease, and cost more money to product than any comedies ever screened.—Air.
